The fifth “Live Your Dream Girls’ Conference” is scheduled for Saturday, November 6th at Dutchess Community College from 8:30-2:30. Would you like to help? There are jobs that require 2 hours or less and some that have no interaction with the girls. Some involve driving, picking up stuff, and delivering it. Here are just a few of the jobs available:

Outreach: Mail Information packets to organizations that have contact with 7th grade girls. Supply names of individuals and organizations that can hand out registration information. Pick up and deliver packages to schools. Call girls and facilitators with reminder two days before conference (script provided).

Program books:
- Coordinate program book fundraising. Prepare and send out letters, provide information to women, keep records of ads, forward ads to program book designer.
- Find sponsors and send the material to the program book coordinator.
- Work with Margaret Nijhuis on the program book: proofing, pick up books at printer, deliver books to DCC

Facilitation:
- Seek out potential facilitators and refer them to coordinator
- Do a workshop (1 hour) or chaperone girls during conference (3-5 hours)

Registration:
- Redesign existing registration brochure (Publisher experience helps)
- Drive copies to and from printer
- Receive registrations via mail and enter them in Excel spreadsheet.
- Print nametags
- Staff registration table (1 hour in morning, 1 hour at check-out)

Materials: Decorate and prepare gifts and journals (begin in August – fun and food provided!). Pick up and deliver T-shirts, yoga mats, or similar items (1 hour). Distribute materials during registration and monitor girls during opening activity (2 hours). Shop for cookies and snacks.

Budget: Keep a record of money received and spent

Set up/Clean up – the usual (1 hour)

Photographers: 2 preferred

KANGAROOS AND ZEBRAS AND TEDDY BEARS...

Betty Harrel 462-2141 bharrel28@msn.com

...are all making their way to young children in the Group Emergency Foster Care Center at The Children’s Home of Poughkeepsie.

Thanks to all who donated cuddly stuffed animals during March, the “Leading to Reading” project is completing “Fuzzy Friend” kits for the children in the center. Each kit contains two books, a stuffed animal, and craft materials. Many of the children were removed quickly from their homes and have few belongings of their own. The kits provide comfort and a sense of belonging for them.

If you forgot to bring a stuffed animal, you have another chance! A basket will be available at the annual dinner on May 11th.

A big THANK YOU goes to our many AAUW supporters!

ANNE CONSTANTINOPLE

We are delighted to have Anne Constantinople as our speaker on May 11th. Dr. Constantinople is a personality and social psychologist by training; she did her undergraduate work at Smith College and earned her PhD from the University of Rochester. After teaching for two years at Bryn Mawr College, she came to Vassar in 1967 hoping to continue the pioneering work initiated by the Mellon Foundation on normal development in the college years. The evidence for the interaction of nature and nurture in development became increasingly compelling; she co-taught a seminar on Gender for many years with a neuroscientist and became a founding member of the American Culture program at Vassar.

In that context, she co-taught several courses on American history and culture, the final one being a seminar on Philanthropy as an expression of American values and beliefs.

LET'S READ MATH MEETING

On Monday, May 3, 2010, we invite all interested members to join the Let's Read Math Committee. Learn about the Let's Read Math program and how Poughkeepsie Branch got involved. There will be an open discussion about the program and future activities. Learn more about the original program and its creator at http://letsreadmath.com/

Place:  Irene Keyes'
178 Cranberry Drive
Hopewell Junction, NY

Time: 7:00 PM

Please let Irene know if you will attending via email ickeyes@frontiernet.net or phone 227-6686
Empowering women is one investment that always pays long-term dividends, not only for the women themselves but their families and the entire nation as well. The Paycheck Fairness Act (S.182/H.R.12) is a comprehensive bill that updates the Equal Pay Act of 1963 by taking meaningful steps to create stronger incentives for employers to follow the law, empower women to negotiate for equal pay, and strengthen federal outreach and enforcement efforts.

Passing this legislation—approved by the House more than a year ago—is the next logical step following the 2009 enactment of the Lilly Ledbetter Fair Pay Act, which restored the ability of working women to have their day in court. Equal Pay is an “Economic Engine” and legislation promoting pay equity is especially critical given the current state of the economy, which has shed more than seven million jobs since December 2007.

For the first time in American history, women represent half of the paid workforce, and two-thirds of women are either the primary or co-bread winner for their families. In other words, pay equity is not just a moral issue; it is an economic imperative with enormous implications not just for women but for working families, communities and the nation’s recovery. The impact of the “Great Recession,”—during which the importance of a working woman’s wage has never been higher—has intensified this trend even further.

Please, take a moment to call, email or write to support this Legislation. Visit the national web site which can be accessed from our own home page or contact Lisa Maatz, AAUW Director of Public Policy and Government Relations, at maatzl@aauw.org or 202/785-7720.

HELP SAVE NEW YORK’S LITERACY PROGRAMS! RESTORE ADULT LITERACY EDUCATION (ALE)

Dee Jakobsen 223-5171  deej1010@aol.com

Governor Paterson’s 2010-11 Executive Budget represent a 38% reduction to Adult Literacy Education (ALE)!! Last year, the Legislature successfully restored some funding for ALE during budget negotiations.

It’s not too late to do it again this year. Join hundreds of literacy supporters to call our top leaders and tell them to protect adult literacy education services in the State Budget! The Adult Literacy Education program supports a wide variety not-for-profits, libraries, community and volunteer based organizations statewide to provide adult literacy education services

Call Senate Leader John Sampson at (518) 455-2788. Call Assembly Speaker Sheldon Silver at (518) 455-3791.

Here’s what you should say to Senator Sampson and Speaker Silver:

✓ Hello, my name is (your name) and I live in (your town).
I’m calling to ask Senator Sampson/Speaker Silver to restore funding for the Adult Literacy Education (ALE) program in the State Budget.
✓ ALE supports a wide variety of and volunteer based organizations statewide to provide adult literacy education services. More than 22% of New Yorkers exhibit below basic literacy skills!
✓ The Senator/Speaker should restore ALE in the Budget.
✓ Thank you.

WORKING WOMEN FIND TIME FOR AAUW FUN!
Kim B. Butwell  kim_butwell@ml.com

Are you a working woman and wish you had more opportunity to do some of the fun and interesting things offered by AAUW?? It’s hard to take time away from work, but now you can combine work and pleasure! The Professional Women’s Networking Group, a new Poughkeepsie AAUW interest group, will focus on offering working members of AAUW a variety of opportunities to build relationships with other professional women.

We will be meeting on Thursday, May 6th at 6:00 p.m. at Babycakes Café, 1 Collegeview Ave, Poughkeepsie. Come for a bite to eat, a glass of wine or a cup of tea. Bring any networking ideas that you would like to share (interesting groups, meetings, fundraisers). Contact Kim B. Butwell C. 914-489-6400, W. 845-431-2272,  kim_butwell@ml.com. Let me know you are coming so I can make a reservation and put you on the reminder list.

The group will provide a chance for AAUW members to meet and share new business practices, exchange marketing ideas and offer business referral opportunities. Eventually we will invite informative speakers to meetings, adding an educational component. If you are a recently retired professional women please come and share your wisdom with newer professional women.

Let’s get The Professional Women’s Networking Group going and attract new members to the Poughkeepsie Branch of AAUW.

LITERARY NOTES

Cathy Kinn cathy@kinn.org

Really, Really Short Stories…. A Six Word Contest

You can create literary gems of your own, in half a dozen words. Ernest Hemingway was once given the challenge of telling a story in just six words. “Papa” came up with a zinger. “For sale: baby shoes, never worn.” Another writer (an aspiring one) expressed her outlook on Life with: “Young, old...Pretty, plain. Only words.”

We're having a contest. Send a six-word memoir or outlook on Life to Diane Browne-Sterdt (browruf@yahoo.com) (no "n" in the e-mail address) by May 1st, and if your entry is selected, you (and one runner-up) will win a coffee and dessert delight at Barnes and Noble (Poughkeepsie), to be enjoyed with Diane and Cathy Kinn. It's not the Pulitzer, we know...but it could be a lot of fun!

JOINT BOARD MEETING

Linda Beyer  462-0345  lmbchanel@aol.com

There will be a combined meeting of the current and the incoming Board members of both the elected and appointed positions on Wednesday, May 5th at 6:00 pm at St. John’s Church. While we enjoy light snacks, we will be discussing AAUW issues in small groups. We hope to encourage new members to begin thinking about their new positions in the upcoming year and to give current Board members the opportunity to share their thoughts and ideas about their Board experiences. Board members usually meet informally with their new counterparts one or more times on their own so this will not be a specific “training” event but a more general discussion.

Current Board members may wish to bring their records or other materials to transfer to their counterpart at this meeting. Current Board members, please have your year-end report ready to submit to me at this meeting.

New Board members are cordially invited to attend the regular Board meeting which will follow the discussion groups at approximately 7:15 – 7:30 pm.

Dear AAUW members,

I wish to express my gratitude for the honor of a named gift to the Educational Opportunities Fund of AAUW. It has been a pleasure to be a part of this wonderful association. I have enjoyed my role as Public Policy Chair and appreciated the support of AAUW members has made the Live Your Dream Girls’ Conference a continued success!

MEMBERSHIP MATTERS
Bergie Lebovitch 298-4045 blebokuvi@yahoo.com

Attention all members! (Except those who joined after Jan.1st of 2010) It’s that time again, when we have to renew our memberships. The Association has kept their fee at $49.00, of which $46.00 is tax deductible, the State remains at $10.00 and the Fabulous Poughkeepsie Branch is still a bargain at $16.00, also tax deductible. The renewal forms and most newly executed profile sheets will be in the mail by April 30th. It is essential that EVERYONE fill out the personal profile sheet so we will be able to better serve your needs. Please return your profile with your renewal.

This year we have decided to “sweeten the deal” by offering three free National memberships to those who have renewed by May 30th. These three $49.00 refund checks will be awarded after a drawing at the June 2nd Programming Meeting. We’re making it a little more enticing by offering you three chances if you get your renewal in by May 10th, two chances if by May 20th, and one chance by May 30th! (Liz Moesel will be receiving your renewals, and if you are having a financial institution make a direct payment-PLEASE MAKE THEM AWARE that Liz’s name and address must appear on the envelope)

Our “little” Branch is now at 316 members!!!! Number 1 in the State, and currently remaining Number 1 in the Country, in the Member get a Member Campaign. To maintain our status, nationally, we need MORE referrals from you ASAP! We definitely have competition from a branch south of us...(and we need another plaque to “house”!!!)

Thirty-six members have brought in 77 members since July 1st of last year and they will be honored at the Annual Meeting on May 11th. Check out the two names with an asterisk (*) below and learn of the fantastic story behind them at the Annual Meeting.

According to the National Data Base of the AAUW, we in Poughkeepsie have a few celebrations of longevity milestones. Please join us at the Annual Meeting to honor Elizabeth (Betty) Smith for her 45 years, as she becomes an Honorary Branch Member. Additionally, we have Cynthia Averill, Marjorie DiDonato, Diane Sipos, and Ann Wade who are also celebrating 25 years with the Poughkeepsie Branch. Just think about all that these women have done for our Branch and their tireless efforts on behalf of all women and girls. Thank you all for all that you have done and will continue to do for AAUW.
