PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Maria DeWald 266-4960 mfdewald@yahoo.com

Although my term as President of our AAUW Poughkeepsie Branch will not end until June 30, this will be my last official letter to you. As with most roles we play in life, my first thoughts are almost always an attempt at honest assessment concerning what goals have and haven't been met, what has been successful and what hasn't, the status of the organization, transition planning, how it all went much faster than expected and how much there still is left to do. Of course, there are also a lot of very mixed feelings. Those range as always from "whew... a break is at hand" to "gosh, I will miss representing such a fine organization as AAUW." Maybe, for now, a report of the NYS Convention, a microcosm of the work AAUW does, will put that in some perspective.

The theme of this year's convention was "Moving Onward, Empowering Women," not so different really than my own theme of "Celebrating Our Legacy, Enhancing Our Future" since all AAUW work is built on a rich past of working on women's issues and always pointed forward. The Convention, as is the work of our Branch, is a 'call to action.'

We heard from: the very dynamic Kimberly Churches, the new CEO of AAUW, on "New Horizons & Initiatives," I invite you to check out the National website for the new strategic plan outlining the many changes coming to help bring the mission into greater focus; many outstanding young women such as Aasha Shaik, a UN Girl Advocate and former AAUW UN Youth representative, on "Vulnerable Leadership and the Power of Girls;" an enlightening panel, including two AAUW fellows, who discussed "Advocacy in the Current Media Landscape;" and a Legal Advocacy Fund (LAF) litigant, Aileen Rizo, whose case was finally won a few weeks before the Convention!

On that latter topic, at the dedicated LAF Luncheon, we celebrated the 40th anniversary of the "Cornell 11" case which subsequently led to the beginning of the LAF fund in 1981 by the AAUW Ithaca Branch. In 1978, eleven faculty women from Cornell University banded together to confront the university that had denied them equal pay and promotion. Among the friends that helped were Jennie Farley and Alice Cook, both professors and both AAUW Ithaca members. When the case was finally settled out of court, one of the plaintiffs said "Without AAUW, the plaintiffs would not have had a chance at all. They would have been destroyed." That continues to be the case, with the LAF program. AAUW-NYS was ranked #2 nationally in LAF giving for 2017 for the fourth year in a row! We have very generous members!

Of course, there were: business meetings where new officers were elected; a District IV planning meeting; a variety of workshops; opportunities to gather for yoga or a walk; a pre-convention visit the Corning Museum; a President's Dinner honoring the State's Emerging Leaders including our own Monique Jones; and several small but engaging fundraisers including a basket/bag auction/raffle (our LAF Chair, Janna Whearty's donated bag was VERY popular), a Fund Swim (yes, there is an AAUW "Merwomen"), and a living history performance on Elizabeth Cady Stanton.

At the Program and Awards Breakfast, our Branch received a Platinum Program Award for our Court Watch Program (yeah Ann Pinna and team!), a Newsletter of Excellence Award and a Website of Excellence Award (hip-hip- hooray for Margaret Nijhuis and her team) and, an Excellence in Visibility Award (so many contribute here from our Facebook page to our publicity work to our monthly programs). There was a plethora of AAUW Poughkeepsie members who were a very big part of the success of this event including Mary Lou Davis, co-chair, and her team of able helpers, who worked on programming, a display board, centerpieces, registration, helping with the auction, and wherever needed. Kudos to all!

So, yes, the convention represented a microcosm of AAUW...the serious business of supporting women's issues, advocacy training, learning from colleagues, planning, camaraderie, leadership and fun. Indeed, this is the same thing that I have been honored to watch you do here in Poughkeepsie. I cannot thank you enough for your generous support and friendship. It has been my pleasure and my honor, truly.

Please don't forget to vote on the National Bylaws amendments by June 5th (see page 9) and please make it a priority to renew your membership for 2018-19 (see page 8). I hope to see many, many of you at our Annual Meeting on Thursday, June 14, at the Children's Home of Poughkeepsie where we will transition to our new leadership team. They have my full support in all ways and I have full confidence that you will be in very dedicated and capable hands.

All best and Happy Summer! Maria ■

SPEAKERS AT THE ANNUAL MEETING

The Children's Home of Poughkeepsie, established in 1847, provides a range of services and programs giving hope and healing to abused and neglected children in the Hudson River region. The Home is dedicated to providing a safe and nurturing environment that improves lives and empowers at-risk children and families in the Hudson Valley and surrounding communities. Children's Home staff members, Courtney Rovere, Director of Community Based Services, and Erin Cafarelli, Director of Development and Public Relations, will speak on "The Importance of Community Connections," a discussion on the current needs and push from Residential to Community Based Services and the important role the community plays in the success of the program.

Also, since 2011, AAUW Poughkeepsie, through its Irene Keyes Memorial Fund and other donations, has provided an annual scholarship for a student to attend the AAUW National Conference for College Women Student Leaders (NCCWSL) in Washington, DC. This conference brings together college-age women from around the country to participate in workshops focusing on advocacy, leadership, health and wellness, and "real-world" issues such as financial literacy and life after college. We are pleased that the 2018 winner, Katherine Murray, a student at Marist College, will be speaking about her recent experience at the 2018 Conference. ■

The 7th grade winner was Alyssa Lowe from St. Mary's School in Fishkill for her project on "Synesthesia: The Sixth Sense." The 8th grade winner was Abigail Gadonniex from St. Martin de Porres School. Her project was "Comparing Algal Biofuels and Diesel." Please help provide a child something warm and cuddly to hold while enjoying their new books. They must be new and can be up to 10" tall. Bring the animals to our Annual Dinner, to be held on Thursday, June 14 at the Children's Home.

Damsels Need Not Apply.

Two employees are in the same place, at the same meeting, watching and listening to the same interactions and dialogue. Both share similar job titles and have comparable resumes. Both attended controversial meetings where suspicious activities occurred. Both were implicated real estate felonies. One has to be terminated. One is male and one is female. One can be salvaged and the other is “disposable.” Who will be saved?

A former New York mayor suggests it be “the fine young woman.” He suggests he would ride in on his charger and run into the office with his “lance” to save her. He further suggests that America would turn on anyone who attacked her. The man? Disposable.

Today's woman doesn't need or require a medieval knight. After all, chivalry is dead. (Although, she might like to be saved by someone who would take his Lear Jet to Nova Scotia for the total eclipse of the sun). She doesn't rely on “an officer and a gentleman” to save her from the plant. She has her own credentials, education and experience to defend herself in the workplace.

Female employees do not require champions disguised as gender bias. They only need to rely on their own skills in a place that equally administers salary, expectations, standards, job performance and success to all employers regardless of sex, race and religion. If it is expected or suggested that a women should be the recipient of gender bias, why would anyone hire a woman? Sexism emerges and gender bias undermines the efforts for equity in the workplace.

Sexism in today's marketplace appears the result of personality rather than politics. However, if medieval stereotypes creep into modern day behaviors, women will surrender progress to regression.

Women have not asked for a cavalry of knights. They ask for opportunities to equally compete in the work force and be assessed on their merits. While the image of the “White Knight” may live in romance, it has no place in the board room. Women can and are willing to stand up for themselves. Damsels need not apply. ■

Writers' Tea & Benefit Auction

April 15, 2018 was not a lovely spring day but everyone was happy and having a wonderful time as they participated in the 9th Annual Writers' Tea & Benefit Auction. The writers were both outstanding, the food was excellent and our wonderful members were very generous at the auction. Our profit was an all time record of $10,684.73 for our scholarships and community service initiatives. Again the committee would like to say a huge thank you to all of our members who donated items for the auction – many have done so for all 9 years. And to the people who attended, without your purchase of tickets for the event and bidding at the auction all of our efforts would be in vain. We would also like to thank the many members who worked on the auction (for months ahead) and helped out on the day of the event at the auction and tea! AND to each member of the Writers' Tea & Auction Committee – thank you for your yearlong work to make this event a success.

J. Lazarre, Author, and L. Lurie friends since childhood

Please patronize the many businesses who donated to our auction and say thank you when you are there. There is a complete list at www.aauwpoughkeepsie.org on the Tea page.

TREKKERS

What happening and Plans

Tori Smith (914-805-8046) torismith.home@gmail.com

Join our group of hardy walkers/hikers. Contact Tori to be placed on the email list. We had a very enjoyable walk across the bridges last month, weather was lovely.

For June we are planning to walk/hike Montgomery Place in Red Hook, on Saturday, June 2nd. The House Tour is $10 and starts at 10:30 am and runs every hour after that. We can walk first or do the tour depending on the group's desire. We will meet across Route 9 from Marist College at the old Staples parking lot, close to Starbucks, at 9:15 am. We can car pool according to who wants to do both tour and hike, or just one or the other.

In July, we are planning a walk in Innisfree Garden in Millbrook, date TBD.

August will be a local hike/walk, date TBD.

I am planning on doing a NYC walking tour on September 8th, Saturday. I would like opinions on which tour you prefer. I have a few ideas: Hamilton's Haunts, $39, starts at Trinity church and ends at his favorite tavern; or a Red Hook, Brooklyn tour for about the same price, which takes a ferry to Brooklyn from Manhattan or a walking food tour in the Flatiron district for $50.

I will be away for most of May, so no hike is planned. If you would like to go on the June hike please email me before the hike date, text /call me on my cell, 914-805-8046. Guests are welcome on all hikes, however, no person under 18 and no dogs.

Thanks, Tori

GIRLS' CONFERENCE - VOLUNTEERS

Diana Babington 845-546-1667 dibab@aol.com

Call To Action

When I retired four years ago, I was looking for some volunteer opportunities and decided to join AAUW.

Less than six months after joining, I found myself as the co-chair of the Live Your Dream Girls' Conference with Lori Scolaro. Since I had worked in education for over 25 years, I thought it might be fun to help with a Girls' Conference and make a difference in young girl's lives. And now, working on my third conference I am still awed by the effect the program has had, not only on the girls, but the Big Sisters as well as the adult facilitators and volunteers who join us each year.

Many of you gladly support us through the Divas, Dreamers and Darlings program and for that we are most grateful. But I am sure there are those of you who would like to do more outreach. So, this little missive is a call to action to our sisters who would like to serve as a volunteer on the day or as a member of our committee. We are in need of women to help with recruitment of the girls in particular, for without them.....we have no conference. So, if you'd like to participate just a little bit more, please email or call Diana. We would love to have you join us. Diana and Lori ■
