

Diversity Committee 2015-16

Jacqueline Goffe-McNish

The committee met in September 2015 to plan the program for 2015/2016. We decided to present our program every third Fridays from 5:00 to 7:00. We adopted the theme: Broaden our Borders

The committee members are Carmen McGill, Gwen Higgins, Marcine Humphrey, Cameen Rouse, Gail Upchurch, Nada Halloway, Sheere Wesley–Davis, Jacqueline Goffe-McNish.

In October we did a film discussion. The film was entitled Daughters of Dust : The Life of the Gullah People.

In April there was lecture on Islam by Dr. Nada Halloway.

In June we will be travelling to New York City Burial Ground and Schomberg Museum.

There is a cultural immersion trip proposed for July to Jamaica.

These programs have been well attended and received by the members of the Branch.
